Chapter 1 by Feyre Archeron

It was one rainy morning , when my whole day was turned around quickly. First I woke up to the sound of rain, and I knew it right then that my entire day was ruined. I got up all sluggish and rolled into the bathroom and brushed my teeth. I got back into my room and got dressed. Then I walked down the stairs and ate breakfast. Then I went back upstairs and tried to replay my whole day. What I had planned was for a not rainy day, first I would go get my bestie Maylee.

Then we would go get ice cream, then we would go to the mall and buy new swimsuits. After we got our swimsuits we would have gone to the water park in Salina. We would have stayed there all day. Then we would have had a sleepover and party at my house but it had to be a rainy day. We ended up having a party at my house and dancing in the rain singing along to our favorite songs. We had so much fun we almost forgot about our other plans that we were supposed to have go on but we completely forgot.
